The 1969-70 Exchange of Bryophytes

Up to 8 December eleven parcels only have been received by the Secretary. The senders are:- Dr A. Boros, Dr Dobbie, K. Diersen, Miss E.H. du Feu, Dr J.G. Duckett, Dr Dana Griffin, J. Hayward, Mrs A.L.K. King, M. McFarlane, B.J. O'Shea, A.J. Pettifer.

It is hoped that some more of our Members will contribute - several usually regular supporters have not so far - only two of the above sent a large contribution, both foreign.

New Members desirous of receiving named specimens for assistance in identification should inform the Secretary.

Title page to Transactions Volume 5. If any Member is still lacking this, please apply to the Secretary.

Field Day in Surrey - 22 March 1970.

The Secretary is leading a bryophyte meeting for the London Natural History Society in the Pirbright area. B.B.S. Members welcome. Meet Brookwood Station (S.R.) 10.44 a.m. (Waterloo 9.53).

Reminder from the Treasurer

Members domiciled outside Great Britain, U.S.A. and Canada who wish to pay their subs. in their own currency should add the equivalent of 5/- to allow for the cost of exchange.

Payment in this manner should also be made through a bank or equivalent.

Transactions - Volume 1 - Reprint.

The number of orders received by Micro-Methods Ltd. is so few that it is doubtful at present as to future arrangements. We hope the position will improve.

E.C. Wallace
Hon. Secretary
