

RBGE Bryology 2023

Incorporating the BBS Autumn Meeting and AGM
Saturday 9th September, 9:45 – 18:00

Royal
Botanic Garden
Edinburgh

9:45	WELCOME
10:00	Hamlyn Jones	Challenges in developing multi-access keys for mosses
10:30	Wouter Van Landuyt	Changes in bryophyte distribution in Flanders during the last 40 years
11:00	Rory Hodd	An exploration of Ireland's disjunct bryophyte flora
11:30	Jeff Duckett	Never mind molecular biology: basic morphology provides the key to understanding stomatal function in bryophytes.
12:00	LUNCH
13:00	Isabel Draper	Diversity and evolutionary patterns in Orthotrichaceae: How can we unveil the true diversity of this family?
13:30	Silvia Pressel	Symbiotic fungi in liverworts and hornworts: where are we in 2023?
14:00	Mark Hill & Chris Preston	Fifty years in the making: a database of first records of British and Irish bryophytes
14:30	BREAK
15:00	Des Callaghan (Pre-recorded)	Sphagnum balticum in Britain
15:30	RBGE speakers	Bryophyte research at RBGE
16:30	BBS AGM
18:00	FINISH

Evening meal at a local restaurant (time and location to be confirmed).